TUESDAY ALIVE October 10

Our speaker for Tuesday Alive was Elizabeth Soto, well-known in Mennonite circles, as she served as the first Latina moderator of MCUSA in 2013. Elizabeth shared some of her early years, growing up in Puerto Rico in the Catholic Church. She came to embrace the Mennonite faith while living in Puerto Rico and participating in her neighbor's house church.

After marrying Frank Albrecht they served for 7 years in Colombia, South America. Elizabeth now is the minister of pastoral care at Laurel St. Mennonite Church in Lancaster.

Elizabeth enjoys writing and has just finished the adult Sunday school books for fall of 2024. She is a Bible scholar, which was evident as she spoke in depth about the Acts 9 story of Dorcas and Peter's miracle. The Spirit of God surprised Peter and the whole community.

She has a heart for immigrant women and has started an organization for these women called Women's Global Village. They meet at Hub 450 on Prince Street in Lancaster where the women gather to sew items that they can sell to generate some income. She had some of the items along with her for purchase.

As usual, we had a delicious meal made and served by Darlene and Marsha, with assistance from Charlotte and Rick. We presented Loretta with a beautiful mum to honor her for her leadership of Tuesday Alive for many years. We are glad to have John Denlinger take on the chairman position of the committee for this coming year. -Evie Hershey
