Tuesday Alive March 12, 2024

John Denlinger, leader of planning committee, welcomed about 50 people to the first Tuesday Alive gathering of the 2024-2035 season.

Jeff Raught appropriately began the program with the "Begatting" song! This was followed by an hour of delightful songs and thoughts about life.

"It's what we put into our hearts is how we stuff our shells, a reference to the feeding of the 5000. How many kinds of pasta could possibly be stuffed into one song?"

"Training Wheels", about how when we've found our balance, we can help others to find theirs. "While we were teaching you, we were learning, too. While we were teaching you, we were loving you as well."

Telling a "true story" about going through the drive-through in reverse at Burger King, prompted John to call out, "That was a Whopper of a story!"

A few other songs and stories concluded a fun morning.

As is their custom, the kitchen crew offered another delicious lunch.

April 9, Village Voices will present a musical program.
