John Denlinger welcomed all to the morning and opened with prayer. He introduced the guest speaker, Gordon Douglas. Gordon is a Christian comedian, pastor and chaplain of the Christian Comedy Association.

Gordon and his wife Dawn are the parents of five biological children and have opened their home to many more through fostering and adoption, a nephew with Downs Syndrome and a father who needed care-giving. They have been named Pennsylvania's Parents of the year.

The hour was filled with enjoyment and laughter. "What do you call a cow with no legs? Ground Beef!"
"What do you call a cow with two legs? Lean Beef!"
"What do you call a cow with no calf? Decaf!"
You can find videos on You Tube.

On June 11, Edith Yoder and Caleb Simmers will help the group explore what it means to love our neighbors facing homelessness.
