TUESDAY ALIVE – May 13

About 65 people gathered for a morning of music brought by the Dale and Dean Band.

The band consisted of Dale Stoltzfus, front man, Dean Hertzler, guitar and harmonica which he plays simultaneously!

Justin Stoltzfus (Dale's son) on electric guitar and bass, Nance Fertich, keyboard and harmony, and Nate Ipsen percussion completed the group.

Dale noted that some songs stay relevant through the years. One such song is Steve Earle's Jerusalem "I woke up this morning and none of the news was good....[but] I believe that one fine day, all the children of Abraham will lay down their swords forever in Jerusalem."

Other songs included The Land of Beulah, Blowin' in the Wind, Little Country Church, I Don't Know About Tomorrow (but I know who holds my hand), Let Us Cross Over the River, Go Rest High Upon That Mountain, and I'm just a Pilgrim on This Road, Boys.

After about an hour, we were invited to sing along with their final song, Angel Band. Just in time for the stuffed chicken breast meal prepared by the faithful kitchen crew! Much appreciated!
