Call to Worship

L: Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

P: We have come to worship the God of our mothers and fathers.

L: We have come to affirm our faith – past, present, and future.

P: In life and death, we belong to God.

L: We have come to affirm our trust in the God of all futures.

P: Baptized into Christ's death, we live unto the One who loves us.

L: We respond in Thanksgiving to the mighty works of God in our lives.

P: To whose name be blessing and honor, glory, and power forever and ever.

All: Come, let us worship God.

Responsive Reading

L: Gracious God, you are to be praised for the women and men whose faithful witness to your love inspires each generation of your people.

P: Mindful of all those who have gone on ahead of us, teach us to follow their example:

W: to feed the poor; to support and comfort those who mourn;

M: to cherish and learn from the merciful; to be humbled by, and stand with, the peacemakers.

L: Let us clearly recognize what it means to be called the children of God, and may we know we are to be your saints.

P: Neither by our own choosing nor in our own strength, but simply by the call of Christ Jesus our Savior.

L: Loving God, the generations rise and pass away before you.

M: You are the strength of those who labor;

W: you are the rest of those gone before us.

P: We rejoice in the company of your saints.

L: We remember all who have lived in faith, all who have peacefully died, and especially those closest to us who rest in you, whose lives we remember today.

All: We bless you for their lives and love, and rejoice for them that "all is well, and all manner of things will be well." Amen.
