TUESDAY ALIVE

The first 2026 gathering of Tuesday Alive brought a celebration of the March birthdays and anniversaries (a 70th)!

John introduced Nathan and Terah Kennel, worship leaders for Branch Community Church. They met at Lancaster Mennonite High where they discovered a mutual love of music, especially worship music. Thus began a life of sharing this love with invitations to serve in various settings. This led to an invitation to become Worship Leaders at the newly formed congregation called Branch, which meets here at Ridgeview in a shared space.

They, very capably, led the Tuesday Alive group in music and meditation. Sharing their own experiences of parenting 6 children, ages 8 to 22, they noted that the church itself is a bridge in a multi-generational family. The Kennels are a small group of the older generation in a congregation with many young families, including about 90 children, from 6th grade and younger.

In the meantime, the kitchen crew prepared a delicious hot meal. Following a prayer of blessing, all enjoyed the fellowship around the tables.

Next meeting is Tuesday, April 14. Lois and Lemar Mast will share stories of Anabaptist history tours, genealogy, and Masthoff Press, their publishing company.
