Call to Worship

Leader: Lord, we come together in worship knowing all the storms of our lives are still swirling and raging.

People: We invite you to come, speak to our hearts in the same ways you spoke to the waves: "Quiet. Be Still."

Leader: We see our Lord, Lord of all, able to both create hurricanes and calm them, stir up waves and still them.

People: In the midst of the storm, we trust that you are with us, and that your word can bring peace to our hearts and still the chaos of our days.

Leader: Come, then, as those who have heard the call to be at peace, and as those who have learned to trust in the One who speaks the wind into stillness.

People: We come, not to fear the storm, but to walk with you through it, confident that you are our shelter and our strength.

Leader: Let us enter into the presence of the One who calms the waves and stills the fear, and let us worship the God who is with us in every storm.

People: Amen

Fierce Raged the Tempest

Fierce raged the tempest, o're the deep,
Anxious disciples watch did keep
But you were wrapped in guileless sleep,
Calm and still.

Save, us, we perish! Was their cry.
Save us or we will surely die.
Your word above the storm rose high:
Peace! Be still.

The wild winds hushed; the angry deep fell
Like a little child, to sleep
The sullen billows ceased to leap At your will.

So, when our life is clouded o'er
And storm-winds drift us from the shore
Say, lest we sink to rise no more,
Peace! Be still.

Called by God to learn and share together God's love with all creation.
